If you will observe, it does not take a man of giant mould to make a giant shadow on the wall, and he, who in our daily sight, seems but a figure meek and small, may stalk a silhouette sublime across the canvas of his time.

"old movies" bids goodbye to old school

The theme this year was "Old Movies," which was carried through with a ticket booth, marquee, and decorations looking like strips of film. The Hooker Brothers provided music for the dance while Richy Malone and Jerri Lynn Severns were crowned King and Queen during intermission.

Although the traditional bonfire didn't have as big of turnout as was expected, the ice cream eating contest proved to be a flavorful addition for both students and faculty.

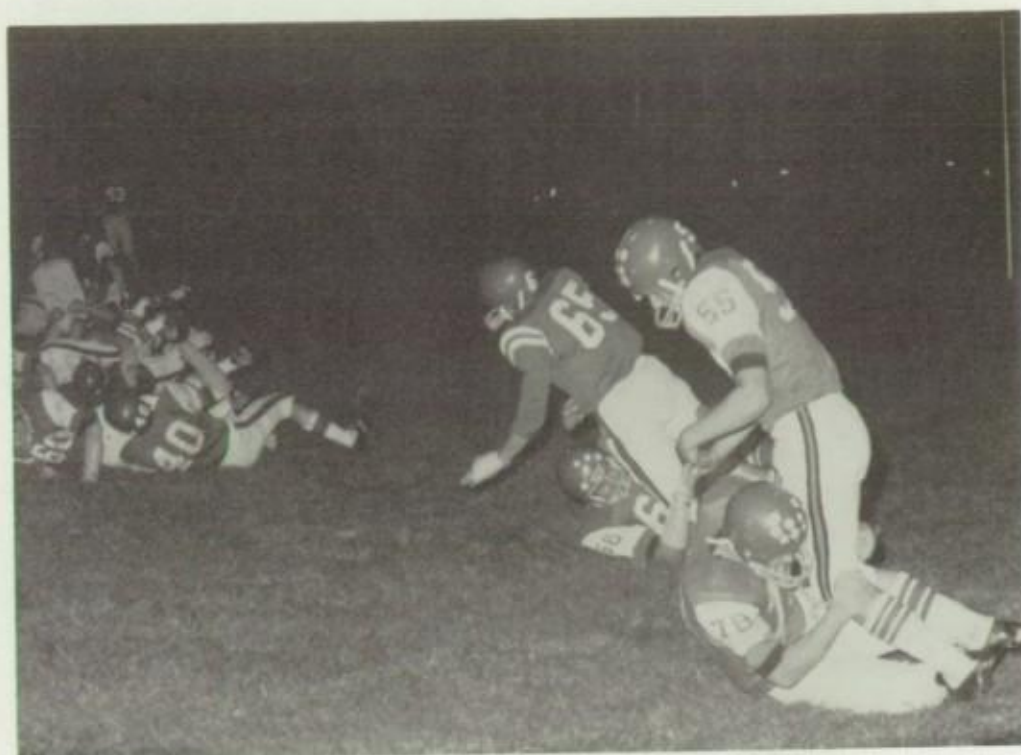

shadow of defeat

Wait of the next one . . . it's got a real monkey on it.

Ready boys? One and two and. . .

Wrong again, R. C. Our goal is the other way.

Don't just stand there, Dennis. Do something.

Hurry? Call bad sportsmanship on the ref.

doesn't darken spirit

Hey! Get your foot out of my ear.

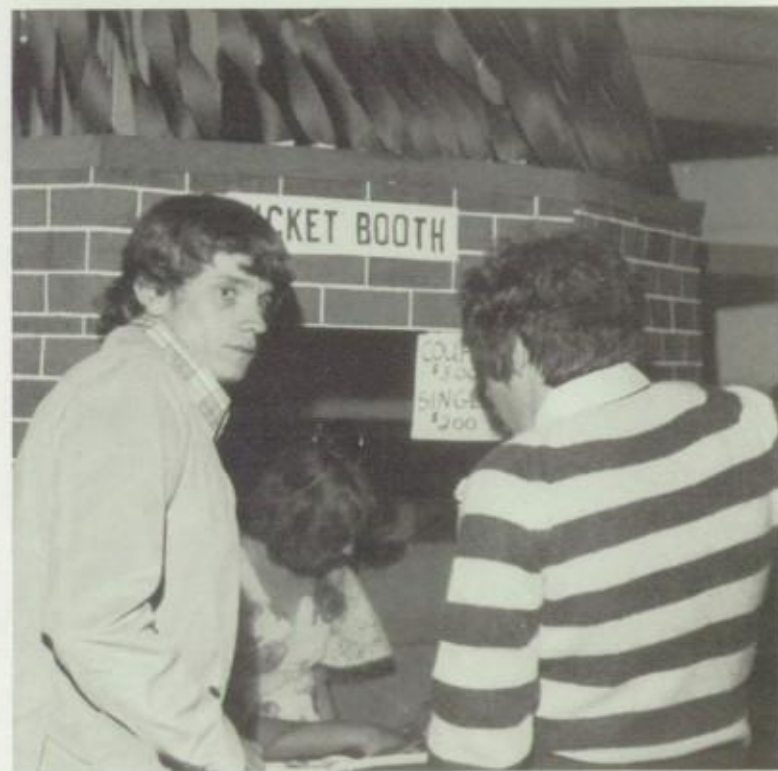

Where'd you leave your horse, Rich?

Lynn, Patty only said, "Our mom got a new pup," not that "R. C. should hang it up."

Really, the flag just fell out of my pocket.

The main bulletin board was decorated to remind everyone of all the events which would take place throughout the week.

The first place float, which was won by the Sophomore class, was a take-off from the popular King Kong movie.

As well as the 1978 royalty, we were honored by the presence of six previous years' Kings and Queens.

graduation: reflection of the past-outline of the future

Can these four years really be gone? The reflections of the past—the class activities, the move to the new school, the long lunchline, the quick conversations before class—all passed away.

Here I am, each step down the aisle, knowing this is my graduation. My family is behind me once again as I reach another goal.

But this goal is just one of many. The outline of the future—of what I will become. Growing each day, setting higher goals, and striving to reach them.

dedication christens

Dedication ceremonies were held in the Dunlap gym on Sunday, March 12, 1978. The ceremony was held in complete military fashion with color guard and official procession.

The gym was dedicated to Major Robert Dunlap, U.S.M.C., retired. In his acceptance speech he expressed his pride for the years he spent in Abingdon, and being honored in this manner.

Major Dunlap is a Congressional medal of honor winner.

The auditorium was dedicated to Rear Admiral James Bond Stockdale. During his dedicational address, Admiral Stockdale gave the school two tokens of appreciation. He gave a picture of the battle of Yorktown, which came off the wall of the United States Secretary of State's office. He also gave, on loan, a scale model of the raising of the U.S. flag at the battle of Iwo Jima.

Admiral Stockdale is also a Congressional medal of honor winner and served several years in an enemy prisoner camp.

Music for the dedication ceremony was presented by the U.S.M.C. Drum and Bugle Corp, and the Great Lakes Navy Band. They each played at intervals throughout the ceremony, and then, The Navy Band presented three additional concerts in the newly dedicated Stockdale Auditorium.

the imaginary invalid

I'd cry too if my guy had two men hiding under his bed.

The "talented cast

The Imaginary Invalid was presented on November 18, 1977. It is a French play about a rich man who thinks he is dying. His second wife is after his money and she keeps plotting to get rid of him. He wants his daughter to marry a doctor so he can be cured, but she is in love with someone else. The plot of the play is to prove he is not really dying, to unite his daughter with her true love, and to show the true sentiments of his wife. The cast of the play included: Rick Ray, Teresa Onion, Kelly Bowton, Robin Ray, David Stranger, Mike Lucas, Kay Malone, Alan Witherell, Mike Wallis, Nancy Fey, Jim Fey, and Doug Moore.

It won't do any good, Doug. He already gave up hope on you.

The right leg is connected to the collarbone

"Imaginary invalid? This guy really looks sick."

Ahh. . . Sweet Surrender.

life with father

"Life With Father" was presented as the Spring play on April 14, 1978. The play was a very good example of life in the 1800's with an overbearing father. The cast, (pictured above) from left to right, First row: Robert Schleich, Teresa Onion, Rick Ray, Grant Morris, Todd Thurman, Barry Rehling. Second row: Rick Sandoval, Susan Wingate, Robin Ray, Sarah Head, Doug Moore, Mary Cushing, Kelly Bowton, Randy Ray; Beth Sampson and Bev Peterson are not pictured.

Mary, please!

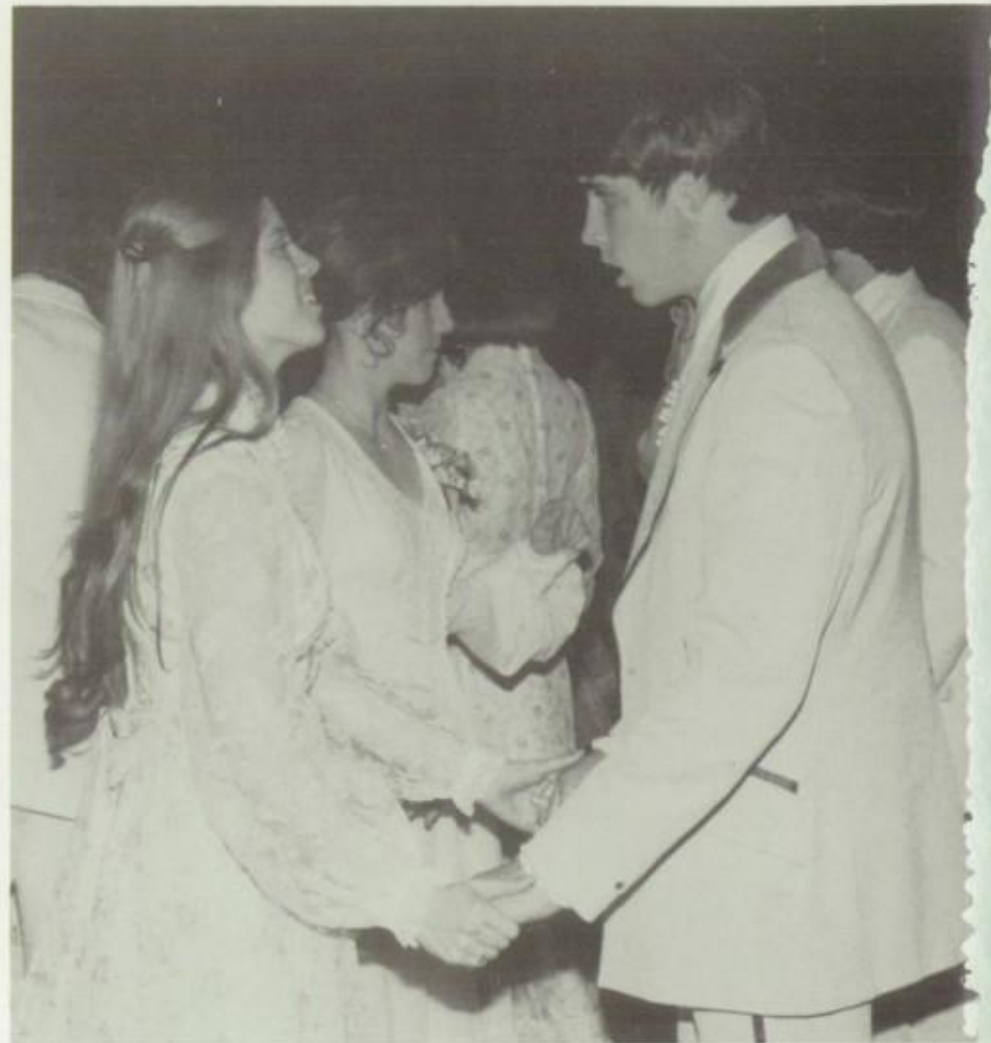

The Play was presented under the direction of Mrs. Anita White. Many disagreements and misunderstandings were behind the final production, and Mrs. White handled them very well. Without her patience and guidance, the play would not have been such a success.

Nest turns preacher

"looks like

The 1978 Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 13 at the Sheraton Inn. The theme was, "Looks Like We Made It", which was carried out throughout with decorations and favors. The sit-down candlelight dinner shall prove to be most memorable, along with the ushers, and the unusually good meal.

What kind of perfume did you say you were wearing?

we made it"

1 . . . 2 . . . 3 . . . PEEK-A-BOO!!!

No, girls, Mom isn't here to make you eat.

It's only a camera, Joe.

gong show: first program in new auditorium

The Art Club sponsored the Gong Show which consisted of various acts. Mr. Hufnagl, Mr. Glasnovich, and Teresa Onion served as judges. Peggy Franklin won the 1st prize of $15 for her acrobatic dance. The acts were as follows: KISS, acrobatic dance, twit race, "Whistling Dixie", Chinese girls, belly dancers, gossiping women, unknown comic, banana men, and skate boards.

Did you say there was a talent scout in the audience?

Are you sure Charlie's angels started this way?

A picture is worth a thousand words.

the junior review: you ain't seen nothin' yet

The Junior Review was one of the great performances given in the Stockdale Auditorium this year.

The program included thirteen talent acts. Mike Wallace and Anita Cassity were the M.C.'s for the evening. The show proved to be a successful money-making project and may well become a tradition at AHS.

janet turner wins at state

This year, Janet Turner shattered all school records for the girls in the long jump, and went on to win first place at state, something no other girl from Abingdon has ever done in track. On her third jump of the day, Janet broke her old record by almost two feet by leaping 18'4 1/2". Along with the long jump, Janet also did the high jump and the 440 relay.

Swing Choir's busy year included performances at the Olympic Conference Choral Festival, the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, Contest, and a few around the community.

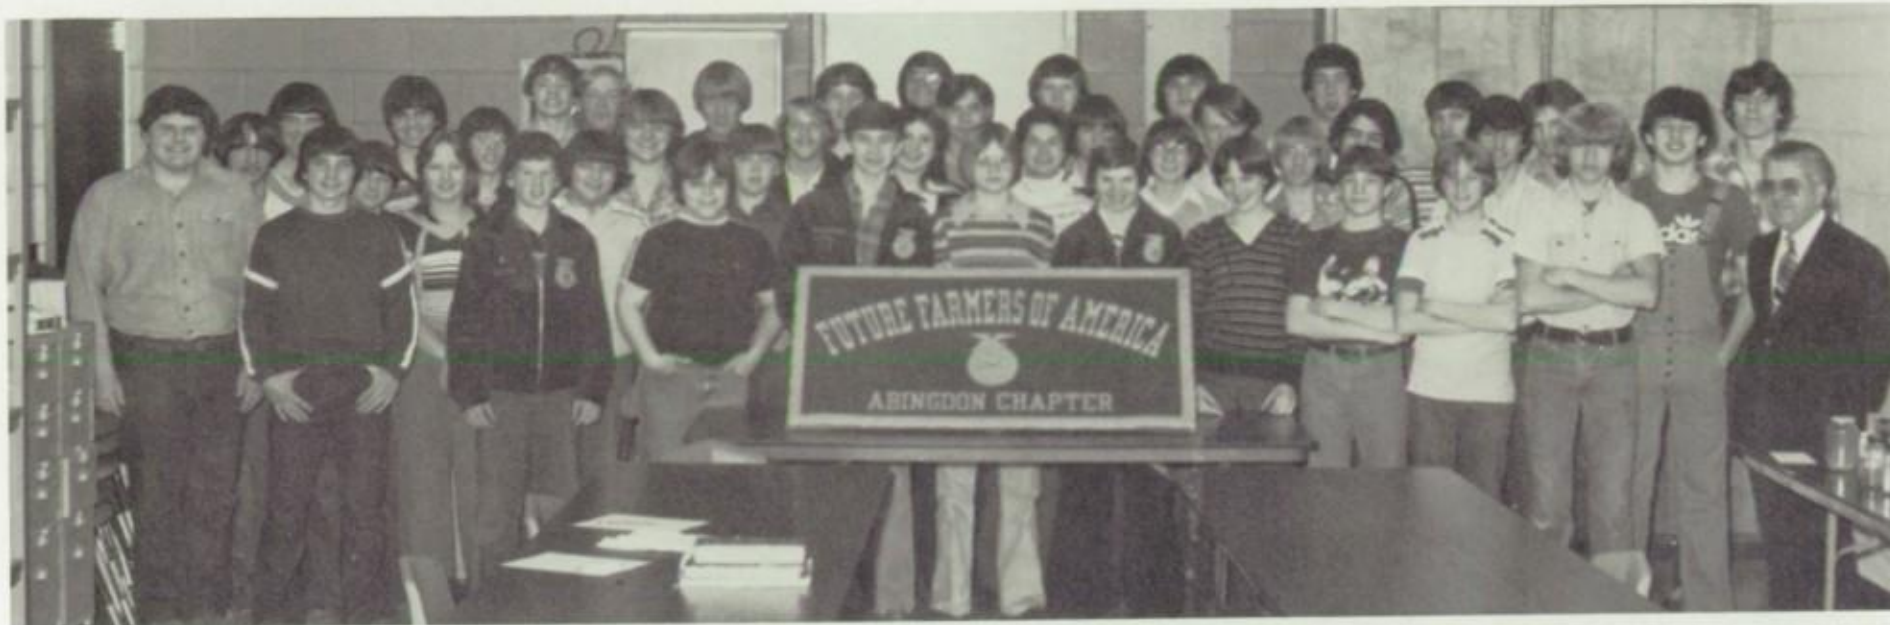

Swing Choir, directed by Miss Barbara Stringfield, held practice every Tuesday morning at seven a.m. Four or five members of the choir choriographed the songs used for dances. And then taught the dances to the rest of the choir.

For Contest they performed to these tunes; TRAVELIN' FREEDOM'S ROAD and I WON'T LAST A DAY WITHOUT YOU. Some of their other selections were CELEBRATE, O, BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL, HARMONY, and IT'S A WONDERFUL THING TO BE ME.

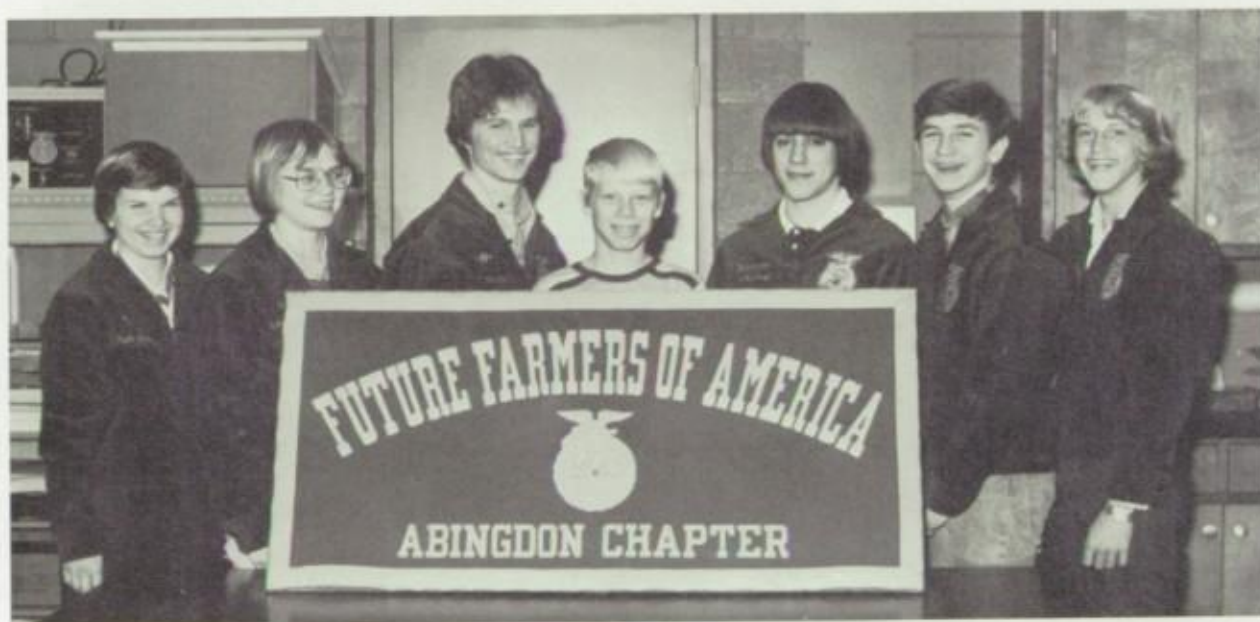

Each year a few members are sent to Swing Camp at Western Illinois University, July 9-15. Those who went this summer are Ann Ortery, Todd Thurman, Tony Donley, Rick Ray, David Stranger, Janet Fawbush, and Kelly Bowton.

Many activities were planned and completed by the Abingdon Chapter of FFA. These included their annual chili supper and parent/son or daughter banquet, sold garden seeds and held a slave auction.

Among the honors received by individual members were Jim Dunn, section IV beef award and Mark Ray, who won the state farmer degree in FFA, which is the highest degree given in the state to local members.

As a group, the FFA received 2nd place in section IV in Parliamentary Procedure and agricultural mechanics and 3rd place in grain judging.

Other activities of FFA, were farming 45 acres in soybeans and corn and aided in moving library books and the individual teachers to the new school.

The Home Economics Club this year had a new sponsor. Mrs. Betty Werder, in coming to Abingdon High School, brought many new ideas and kept the members quite busy with some of them

The members this year viewed a cake decorating demonstration, held a pizza party, co-sponsored the St. Patrick's Day Dance, and held a Senior farewell banquet at Abbe Lanes.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Werder, the Home Economics Club next year will be affiliated with the state's FHA, and will compete in contests with other schools in their FHA district.

With the move to the new high school and the addition of a Student Publications Office, the Commando staff finally had a suitable environment in which to produce the stories to be published on the Commando page.

The 1978 Tatler Staff was kept quite busy this year.

The job of producing a yearbook is quite a task in itself without the added attractions of a new school, dedication ceremonies, and exchange students for instance. The Tatler Staff this year prepared a 130 page yearbook, featuring the theme, "Silhouettes of Change", six pages of color, and a special reverse print section.

Besides worry about deadlines and the yearbook, The Tatler Staff, along with the Commando staff, sold M and M's as a money making project.

The Editorial Board, consisting of editors of Tatler and Commando, and assistant editors of each, plus photographers, had quite a job this year. In June of 1977, Abingdon High School was granted authority to start a Quill and Scroll chapter. The Editorial Board and Mr. Hufnagl took on this responsibility, and by the spring of '78, the Quill and Scroll chapter of Abingdon High School was firmly established.

Throughout the year, the Editorial Board held numerous meetings, and made various decisions concerning the TATLER and COMMANDO publications.

Librarians for the 77-78 school year were: K. Malone, J. Van Tress, R. Ray, T. Robinson, L. Peterson, S. Allison, J. Fey, M. Howard, S. Head, R. Ray, J. Armstrong, B. Rehling, K. Palmer, M. Cushing, R. Schliech, D. Meadows, J. Beardsley, N. Fey, T. Thurman, S. Swanson, B. Sampson, C. Armstrong, and C. Kisler.

Lab assistants for 77-78 were R. Day, D. McCune, J. Cox

The librarians are in charge of the library each hour. They help check books in and out, control the library, and sort books. These students also put in many hours packing and unpacking books in the move to the new school.

The "right-hand" men of the Biology department were the lab assistants, Rick Day, Dave McCune, and Jeff Cox. Each of these students put in one to two periods each day helping the teachers. Their main duties consisted of washing equipment, setting up labs, mixing chemicals, caring for the animals, assisting in labs (especially while dissecting), using the office machines, and assisting on field trips. They also kept busy stapling papers, running errands, and grading lab manuals.

This year the Claire Johnson Chapter of the National Honor Society held their induction March 28. Fifteen new members were inducted as shown in the picture. (right) From left to right they are Grant Morris, Jerry Landon, Jeff Admire, Jeff Cox, Janet Fawbush, Cindy Kisler, Teresa Onion, Angie Guilliatt, Nancy Fey, Kelly Bowton, Anita Cassity, Bridget Connell, Jerri Severns, Jon VanTress, and Dan Weinstein

The members of the National Honor Society were very busy this year. Throughout the school year, they held bake sales to raise money, and decided to set up a fund for buying gifts for the school with some of this money.

In April, the NHS sponsored a student exchange between the Avon and Bushnell-Prairie City High Schools for one day.

The National Honor Society members also acted as guides during the open house and dedication ceremonies and selected the student of the month.

Student Action for Education, S.A.E., is an organization designed to acquaint students with the varying aspects of education. Several girls were given the opportunity to cadet teach at the grade school.

They were: Cathy Haynes - 2nd grade, Wendy Shoemate - Art, Audrey Haynes - 2nd grade, Tami Day - 4th grade, Marlene Theilen - 4th grade, Jerri Severns - Kindergarten, and Carol Armstrong - 5th grade.

Through this program the students can explore further into a career of elementary education.

In the fall, the Future Secretaries Association inducted 16 new members into the Abingdon chapter, and held a Christmas party.

This year, the members of FSA sponsored speakers for some of their meetings, among them were a court reporter from Midstate College, and some National Secretaries Association members who told about their jobs.

Those participating in speech contest were Darla Brown, poetry; Scott Shipplet, Rick Ray, Bruce Hamman, Pete Kjellander

The Speech club participated in the Yates City Speech Contest and District Speech Contest. Categories in which contestants participated were prose reading, verse reading, humorous, interpretation, oratorical, declamation, dramatic duet, and humorous duet. Those placing at the District Speech Contest were Darla Brown and Rick Ray, 6th, with a humorous duet and Rick Ray, 4th, with an oratorical declamation. Other members of the Speech Club were Bruce Hamman, Scott Shipplet, and Pete Kjellander with Mrs. Anita White as sponsor.

The Student Council, as usual, organized the many homecoming activities; for instance, an ice cream eating contest, red and green day and famous people day, besides the homecoming dance itself that featured "The Hooker Brothers".

The Student Council also sponsored the assemblies for the student body, the student pop machines, and two exchange students from Chile, Alejandro Ananias and Guillermo Ortiz.

In addition, the Student Council co-sponsored the Saint Patrick's Day Disco Dance and held a Muscular Dystrophy Drive.

Members of the Student Council also acted as guides for the open house and dedication.

The Abingdon High School chapter of Quill and Scroll was started this 1977-78 school year with a membership of 12.

At a banquet at Sirloin Stockade, pins and membership cards were distributed to the members.

To be eligible for Quill and Scroll a student must be a junior or senior, must be in the upper third of their class, must have done superior work in a phase of journalism, must be recommended by their supervisor or the committee governing publications, and must be approved by the executive secretary of the society.

The Girl's Athletic Letterwoman's Society (GALS) with approximately 30 members, held a dad's night in September. The girls paired up with their fathers and formed six teams who competed against each other in scooter speedball, volleyball, and cageball. President for GALS was Lynn Wiley, and Secretary-Treasurer was Anita Cassity. The GALS club are tentatively planning to buy mirrors for the girls locker room.

I would like to thank every staff member, the faculty, and Mr. Moore for all their help and cooperation in putting the TATLER together.

A special thanks goes to Dennis Epperson and Pete Kjellander for all the artwork they did for the book, and to Mr. Hufnagl for being VERY patient with the staff.

Everyone was very important and very necessary for the completion of this TATLER.

TATLER editor, Bev Peterson

Sherri Hull, 1st semester editor

I wish to thank everyone from the COMMANDO and TATLER staffs and the members of the school faculty for the help they gave towards the publication of the school paper.

This year proved to be very hectic with the losing of a few semester graduates and the long-ranged move to the new high school. The staff was practically typing on the machines as they were being packed.

The addition of our much needed separate office was greatly appreciated and well-used by the staff.
